SMITH AND WESSON COMPANY:

Smith & Wesson is one of the world's most recognizable manufacturer of firearms and firearms accessories. Since they first opened their doors on 1852, Smith & Wesson have focused on designing and manufacturing innovative solutions that are unparalleled in the field of personal safety and protection. Almost every major law enforcement and military agency in the world has used Smith & Wesson products, and to this day, most police departments in the United States depend on their firearms and accessories.

Smith & Wesson have been a partner to law enforcement since the 1800s, developing crime-fighting tools that set the standard for the field. Their world famous 357 Magnum ® was developed specifically for law enforcement agencies, and the Smith & Wesson .38 Special has been adopted as the caliber of choice at one time or another by hundreds of police departments.

NEACHMM members, their guests, and anyone with an interest in hazardous materials management are welcome to attend! You do not need to be a member to attend this meeting - - so make an effort to join us if you are available. Remember that we need to get a headcount ahead of time, so please RSVP now! Cancellations received after June 16th will be charged the full amount.
